Nothing But The Truth

Although the Community Hall was by no means overcrowded, an enthusiastic audience greeted the Yule players when they presented their three-act Comedy, "Nothing but the Truth", on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Women's Institute. The scene opens in a stockbroker's office where the head of the firm is demonstrating to his partners how to sell "Quicksilver" shares, regardless of the fact that they are practically worthless. This leads to a discussion regarding honesty in business, and one of the junior partners is willing to bet $10,000.00, that he can, and will tell the absolute truth for twenty-four hours. He uses money for this purpose which has been entrusted to him for investment by his fiancée who confidently expects him to double it in a few days and thus swell the funds for the proposed Hospital for children for which she is collecting. A Bishop gets hooked for some of the bogus shares but raises such a rumpus on the advice of the "Truth Teller" that he gets his money returned with interest. The visit of two stage ladies to the office, and later to the home of the broker, causes complications and almost breaks up a home. The climax comes when the junior partner is asked to produce the money which was entrusted to him, but his attempt to stall off his inquisitors until the clock strikes four, and the bet is won. He then hastens to assure his friends that he did not mean to cheat or embarrass them, but it was all on account of the bet.

All the characters were well portrayed by the cast. Mr. Guy Denbigh, as E. M. Ralston, head of the firm of stockbrokers and father of Gwendolyn, sustained the parts well throughout and had a good stage presence. D. D. McQueen as Bob Bennett the junior partner, played the strenuous role with patience and sang freid, and kept the audience on the qui vive, throughout the second and third acts. Miss Osborne as Gwendolyn Ralston, starred as philanthropic church member and fiancée of Bob Bennett. F. L. Simington as Bishop Doan, acted the part of childlike simplicity in business matters, but displayed an unexpected shrewdness in collecting a refund for worthless shares sold to him by an unscrupulous broker, Van Dusen, ably portrayed by Mr. P. B. Diacher. Mr. D. Devermont as Ethel Clarke, depicted the fearful outraged maiden whose singing and wearing apparel had come in for much criticism, acted the part as to the manner born. The characters of Mabel and Sabel Jackson, ladies of the vaudeville stage, were well portrayed by the Misses Harwick and Simington. The High School Orchestra played selections during the evening which added much to an evening's keen enjoyment.

The services of the various members of the Women's Institute, Ladies of the Royal Purple, O. E. S. Eikes and Maude Lodge are being donated to keep this annual event over big.

Sources of supply of Good Seed

Mr. E. L. Gray, Field Crop
Commissioner, Department of Agriculture, Province of Alberta, and Mr. S. H. Vigor, Field Crop Commissioner, Department of Agriculture, Province of Saskatchewan, have compiled lists of those seed growers in the two provinces
who have registered and certified seed for sale, consisting of Marquis wheat, Reward wheat, Mindum wheat, Garnet wheat,
Victory oats, Banner oats, O.A.
C. 21 barley, Hanchen barley,
Crown flax, Bison flax, Prolific
spring rye.

These lists are on file at every Searle and Home Grain elevator in Alberta. Every agent at these elevators or our research department at Winnipeg, will cheerfully give any assistance to farmers in helping to select from these lists the seeds most suitable for their purpose.

Never were registered and certified seeds so cheap as at the present time, never were they so badly needed. Our suggestion is purchase a few bushels at least, and get a start for the improvement of your crops.

Written in Memory of James Preston Matlock

(Grand Prairie Herald)

In memory of my father, James Preston Matlock, who died at De Bolt,
Alberta, Canada, November 23, 1931.

In his last pioneer home, he went peacefully to that last great sleep with his hopes of a home in the Peace River country fulfilled.

His spirit undaunted, his heart still young, although handicapped by ill health, he cleared and cultivated new land, planted and cared for a garden, sowed and harvested wheat and oats.
He fulfilled the dreams of a pioneer.

Born in the state of Missouri in 1861
in a log cabin, on a government land grant, he began his life on a homestead.

His father having come through the Civil War in the Confederate army, felt a great urge to go west, so in the year 1874 he and his wife and family of ten children started for the territory of Washington with two mule-teams and covered wagons. Reaching Council Bluffs, Iowa at the beginning of winter they decided to winter there and continue their journey in the spring.

The spring of 1875 saw them a great pioneer family, pushing their way hopefully westward.

Across the great desert plains they went, seeing great herds of wild and roaming flocks of hostile Indians.

They met many immigrants on the trail going back, but undaunted by the tales of the hardships ahead, they pushed on with their hearts full of hope, with the vision of a new home ever before them.

They arrived in Washington in August, 1875 and chose the site of their new home by the Palouse River, near the present Matlock Landing.

My father, James Preston Matlock was then fourteen years of age. Seven months later he lived on a homestead on Pleasant Valley Wash. In 1887 he married Maude Izora Hinton, whose parents pioneered from the state of Maine to Minnesota, from there to California, from California to Oregon and from Oregon to Washington.

His father, W. D. Hinton, though past the age of ninety, is still in possession of the homestead that he filed on more than fifty years ago.

Three of a family of six children were born on father's first homestead.

Again the spirit of adventure and the urge to pioneer grew strong in his heart, he disposed of his homestead and moved farther west where land was cheap and the country new. It was there the second son was born.

Successive drought and adverse conditions drove him back to the Palouse country, where he rented land and farmed until 1905. Two sons were born at the farm, the youngest dying in infancy.

Hearing glowing reports of the Alberta prairie, father again decided to try pioneering in a new country. So in the fall of 1905 he disposed of his holdings, moved his family to town and boarded the train for Alberta, arriving at Nanton, then the most exclusive wheat producing district in the province. Well satisfied with the country he sent for his family. They arrived on January 20th, 1906.

New settlers were filling up the country very rapidly. Practically all land within thirty miles of the railroad was taken so in the spring both he and his eldest son filed on homesteads forty miles east of Nanton in the heart of the Great Cattle Range.

Leaving his family in Nanton for eighteen months that the younger children might attend school, they began their homestead duties, hauling building material from the foothills, a distance of some seventy-five miles.

In twenty-three years we helped to change the prairie from a great cattle range to one of the greatest wheat producing areas in the world, but also intensive wheat growing began to work another change which drove us out, with thousands of others.

In 1928 I decided to go to the Peace River country to homestead. After looking over various districts I settled in the DeBolt district, east of the Smoky River.

One year later the eldest son homesteaded here. Two months later father, then sixty-eight years old and in failing health, whose pioneer spirit was still young, took a quarter immediately joining ours.

The following year the youngest son took land in the same community.

With his three sons, all homesteading in a new country, he spent the last two years of his life, even the last day happily. At the age of ninety and handicapped by ill health, he still looked into the future with hope and courage.

The stranger was always welcome
at his door, and he built his own monument in the strength of his character and honor.

Left to mourn their great loss are his wife, two daughters and three sons: Maude Elbert of Colfax Wash.,
and Anna Beckett of Seattle Wash.; Clyde, Maude and Albert all of DeBolt.
Also two sisters and four brothers.

Don't Make To Report That Service In Saskatchewan Will Be Discontinued

While in many quarters a belief exists that it is intended to discontinue the open shelf library service of Saskatchewan, there is no intention of taking this step, according to T. A. McInnis, commissioner in charge.

Speaking with reference to a proposal that the Carnegie Foundation may associate itself with the open shelf library system by giving some financial assistance to its extension, Mr. McInnis said nothing definite had yet been decided in the matter although it is hoped that the foundation may give assistance.

President of Biscuit Company Tells Success Story and What Consistent Advertising Will Do

A romance of modern business that should be an inspiration to every small store-keeper was told to newspaper men today (Friday, February 26th) by Mr. C. E. Edmonds, President of Christie, Brown and Company, Limited, who is completing his fifty-sixth year of service with the company.

Mr. Edmonds, who can recall personally much of the history of the Christie, Brown organization, told how the giant biscuit company was started in a small store on Yonge Street, Toronto, by two men with a working capital of probably not more than $500. Today the business they founded is a multi-million dollar enterprise and is the largest industry of its type in Canada. It has two manufacturing plants in the East, another—the million dollar Winnipeg plant—opened last week—in the West and thirteen distributing branches from Halifax to Vancouver.

The simple history of Christie, Brown and Company as told by the active veteran president is this: The business began in 1849 with two young men, James Mathers and Alexander Brown formed a partnership in a small store in Toronto to make biscuits. They had with them as assistant salesman, William Christie, who was destined to become a partner and eventually play an important part in Canada's biscuit making industry.

The biscuits sold from this small bakery became popular with a limited clientele and the business began to progress. Four years later Brown and Mathers retired and the business was handled by young William Christie. Mr. Brown, however, re-entered the company in 1861 and the name, Christie, Brown and Company, Limited, was born. A Confederation of Canada in 1867 found the business fairly established as one of Canada's coming concerns. In 1871 and again in 1874 larger premises were necessary and it was symptomatic of the sales energy behind the organization that the first trans-Canada train had a Christie representative on board.

From that point the business has never looked back until today Christie, Brown and Company are known round the world. The original store in Toronto has been replaced by three factories, one occupying nearly a whole downtown block in Toronto, the second Toronto factory occupying many thousands of square feet of floor space and the third, the new Winnipeg plant, is acknowledged the finest biscuit factory on the continent.

And here, according to Mr. Edmonds, is the real key to success in the Christie, Brown organization. It has consistently maintained a high standard of quality in its products and has advertised steadily in good times and bad, using newspapers from coast to coast, year in and year out.

Old Lady—"I believe you sell diseased meat here."

Butcher—"The worst we serve is dead."

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MARCH 30
JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS
Golden Text: "Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures."—1 Corinthians 15:3.
Lesson: John 18:1 to 18:42.
Devotional Reading: Romans 5:1-8.

Explanations and Comments

The Trial of Jesus, verses 1:16—"We see the real drama, Jesus, all falling into place, as at some mystic signal, each doing something that, and to be done, each doing something dictated by the goodness of his nature, and thus something for which he is answerable; but also doing something that was an unconscious fulfillment of a program; and Jesus himself passing through all these scenes with the sublime steadfastness of one who knows that this must be. This is the joy of the cross. Jesus has not lost His way. He moves steadily to His goal. He is no victim of accident—at every step some one has done that which made necessary and inevitable."

On the Way to Calvary and Crucifixion, verses 17:15—Roman soldiers threw a real cloak across the road. They put it on Him, and struck Him, and Jesus was weary of it. He was weary of this sport they led Him away to be crucified. The procession was led with a herald at the head bearing a board on which was written the Prisoner's "crime"—Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews. After the crucifixion, the soldiers carried nails and hammers. Then came Jesus bearing His cross. Two thieves with Him were crucified. One closely guarded by Roman soldiers, and followed by a multitude of men and women, enemies and sympathizers with Jesus, priests and disciples.

Through the city gate they went. Jesus' strength failed. He was unable to stagger along under His cross. The soldiers threatened they would not carry it, and meeting Simon of Cyrene, they compelled him to carry it on to the hill called Golgotha, or Calvary. There Jesus was nailed to the cross and the cross reared up the thieves on either side of Him.

John 19:25—The friends who were with Him stood by the cross. Mary the wife of Clopas and Mary Magdalene—was Mary His mother?

"If I were hanged on the highest hill I know whose love would follow me."

Mother's love.—Kipling.

Jesus looked up His mother and upon John, and said Mary, "Woman, behold thy son," and to John, "Behold, thy mother!"

The Death of Jesus, verses 28:30—Read here Matthew 27:46, Mark 15:34 and Luke 23:46. "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken Me?"

Near at hand was a vessel full of vinegar, the "pence" or "penny" was the usual drink of Roman soldiers. A sponge was fastened to the end of a branch of hyacinth, filled with the vinegar, and held up for Him to drink. Jesus received it, and then exclaimed "It is finished," as His head fell and His spirit left His body. In the sense of death, were His sufferings, and finished, in the sense of completed, was the sacrifice. It is a triumphal exclamation, meaning: "God's will is obeyed; man's redemption is secured; immortality is won; Heaven is open to man; the gloom of the grave is changed into the glory of resurrection and accession with Christ!"

Prospectors Have Started Rush For Great Bear Lake Area

Six aeroplanes roared away from the airport headed for the mineral area of Great Bear Lake, 1,500 miles to the north. They formed the first of the anticipated spring rush to take from the wilderness the wealth of diamond-bearing pitchblende and other minerals.

Five of the aeroplanes were chartered from the Canadian Airways, Limited, and one was owned by Spence McDonough Aviation Company.

Exhibition is Sponsored by the National Gallery of Canada

A comprehensive and representative exhibition comprising some of the best examples of contemporary British art, sponsored by the National Gallery of Canada, was officially opened by His Excellency the Earl of Denbrough, Governor-General of Canada, Arranged by the National Gallery, in co-operation with the director of the National Gallery of British Art in London, England, the exhibition has been collected for the purpose of acquainting the Canadian public with the work of present day English artists. After a month's showing here it will be sent to other Canadian cities.

Announcement was made that the Governor-General had consented to become honorary president of the National Gallery.

Perhaps the most marked feature of the exhibition is the wide diversity of style revealed by the individual painters. Numbered among the 125 paintings which comprise the exhibition are examples of the work of practically every artist of importance now living in England.

There are outstanding pictures by Sir William Orpen, R.A.; Augustus John, R.A.; self-portrait of Sir William Rothenstein, a fine example of the famous painter's work, Professor Henry Tonks, and many other artists of note.

Vancouver Man Has Spent Long Lifetime In Canada

Described by Judge J. N. Ellis as the liveliest man of 78 he had ever seen, Alvare Rhoty Habsburg, tailor, of Vancouver, was recommended for Canadian citizenship by his honor in naturalization court.

Habsburg, whose father was a Danish sailor and whose mother a native of Brazil, remembered Halifax, Nova Scotia, before the advent of the steamship, according to answers made to the judge. He claimed 1834 for the year of his birth.

He left Halifax 77 years ago, has been a resident of British Columbia since 1868, and saw the first C.P.R. train pass through Port Moody. The old man informed the judge that he had never been out of Canada more than 24 hours in that time.

GOOD WORK OF BRITISH R. A. F. IS RECOUNTED

London, Eng.—For an hour Thursday afternoon, March 18, the House of Commons was illumined with the romance of high adventure.

Sir Philip Sassoon, under secretary for air, introduced the R. A. F. and they were no mere recital of votes and types of aircraft. One saw the Royal Air Force opening up new routes, leading a helping hand in the world's desolate places.

A lost touring car of the Egyptian state railways was discovered in the sand wastes of the Libyan Desert. A friendly hand was given to a district commissioner in the collection of taxes from unwilling semi-nomadic tribes. A case of appendicitis was conveyed 500 miles across the desert from Darfu to Khartoum.

Water and supplies were taken to an African trade expedition stranded north of Vladivostok, with only a small bottle of water between its members.

"Though reckoned by size alone, the Royal Air Force still takes only fifth place in the air forces of the world, we have at least the satisfaction of knowing that no other air force is better equipped, and in no other air force is the standard of training and efficiency so high," said Sir Philip.

"But it is my plain duty to enter a warning that to maintain the standard we shall inevitably require in 1933 and future years substantially more money than the House is being asked to vote in these estimates."

The Royal Air Force estimates total 17,000,000 pounds, a decrease of 700,000 pounds.

In regard to civil aviation, Sir Philip said proposals were afoot to bring into operation—in the near future, it was hoped—some 12,000 miles or more of Empire air routes. When these were opened the Empire would have more than 37,000 miles of organized air routes.

North Salmon Fisheries May Be Developed

On Account of U. S. Senate Refusing To Ratify Treaty

Victoria, B.C.—As a result of refusal of the United States Senate to ratify the treaty negotiated between Canada and the United States five years ago for the preservation of the salmon fisheries of the Fraser River, British Columbia will urge upon Ottawa the complete obliteration of the salmon run of the river and the development of northern fisheries in place of it.

This was intimated in government circles here following announcement that the United States Senate was determined to take no action on the treaty at present.

Along with several others, Dr. MacMurchy recently received notice of her retirement at the end of the month, with superannuation, in view of having reached the 60-year mark. Dr. MacMurchy was appointed chief of the child welfare branch at the time of its inception in 1919.

Preparing For Conference

France Must Import Wheat

Financing Of A Fresh Duty On Canadian Grain Is Vainly

Paris, France.—Reports that the French government will place a fresh duty on Canadian wheat on the expiration of the Franco-Canadian trade treaty next June have no substantiation. It was learned the government has not reached any decision, and such action is described as very improbable.

It is pointed out France is bound to import wheat, as her own production is short, and duties would merely increase the cost of bread to the consumer without benefiting the domestic wheat producer. If any such action were taken it would have to be done under the so-called "judicial act," which authorizes the government to increase duties on certain products, mostly foodstuffs, including wheat, by decree without previous notice.

The ministry of agriculture put into force drastic restrictions on the importation of fresh fruits and live animals, which would be in effect in other countries. This however is a routine step to guard against the introduction of the parasite known as "St. James' disease," which is of Californian origin.

Dr. Grisdale To Retire

Deputy Minister Of Agriculture Will Be Superseded

Ottawa, Ont.—The superannuation of Dr. J. H. Grisdale as Deputy Minister of Agriculture was announced by Robert Weir, Minister of that Department. Dr. Grisdale suffered a breakdown in health about a week ago and as a result asked for his superannuation, which has been granted. He had been Deputy Minister since 1919.

In making the announcement the minister reported that one who had been so long in the service should find it necessary to ask for his superannuation on account of illness. The minister said Dr. Grisdale had been dealing with the movement of Western Canadian grain during February. The international export market is ready to absorb more export grain.

The report says a decided improvement has taken place in the international wheat market and prospects for an increased export movement of Canadian wheat appear to be very good indeed. Both France and Italy have made substantial concessions by increasing the percentage of foreign wheat millers are permitted to grind, France to 25 per cent and Italy to 60 per cent in southern and 40 per cent in northern regions respectively. Germany is reported to be in urgent need of more wheat besides the substantial quantities of rye which it has been obtaining from Russia.

The exportable surplus of Danubian countries is reported as almost completely exhausted and there is little likelihood of much wheat being exported by Russia for some time. Supplies from the 1931 crops appear to be entirely inadequate for home requirements in certain regions and there is urgent need of considerable quantities for food and seed.

Moved by A. Smeaton, Labor, Lethbridge, the resolution read: "Resolved that this assembly, being of the opinion that the results of unemployment can only be properly and adequately prevented by a federal or national scheme of unemployment insurance, acceptable to the provinces, urged the federal government the immediate necessity of such legislation."

Ottawa, Ont.—The Dominion Government intends to carry out its promise to conduct an investigation into a contributory scheme of unemployment insurance with employers and workers participating. It was officially stated today in connection with a contributory scheme of unemployment insurance for a federal or national scheme of unemployment insurance.

Completes Long Journey

Winnipeg Man Hiked To Vancouver and Back

Winnipeg, Man.—Harry E. Sherman, the hardy hiker who set out for Vancouver from Winnipeg on June 13, 1931, has returned here after covering more than 3,800 miles on foot. Sherman walked the 1,875 miles to Vancouver in 49½ days but severe weather conditions and tired muscles slowed him considerably on the return journey and five months have elapsed since he left the Pacific Coast city on October 6. He rode, he gave addresses at 508 schools.

EXPORT MARKET FOR GRAIN IS MUCH STRONGER

Port William, Ont.—There is a more optimistic ring to the report issued by the statistical branch of the board of trade here, which has been dealing with the movement of Western Canadian grain during February. The international export market is ready to absorb more export grain.
